

Three Tier Approach to Mental Health in the workplace

Three Tier

APPROACH

Aims to address the current pitfalls of Employee Assistance Programmes by:

- Removing undue responsibility on supervisors as early screening is done by Mental Health Practitioners.
- Understanding the impact of personal lifestyles, environmental and sociocultural influences, and economic resources on health.

Structure of the Three Tier Approach

